

■ Important Points for Chest X-Rays ■

★ List of Those Required to Take Chest X-Rays

Undergraduate freshmen
First-year students of the master's course, the professional course and the doctoral course
First-year or Third-year students in five-year term doctoral program of Graduate School of Asian and African Area Studies, Graduate School of Advanced Integrated Studies in Human Survivability, or Graduate School of Medicinal Frontier Sciences of Pharmaceutical Sciences
First-year students of Graduate School of Government
First-year students of Graduate School of Management
First-year students of Graduate School of Law
First-year students of Faculty of Medicine or School of Human Health Sciences or Students who are scheduled to undergo clinical practice
Students who engage in clinical work or contact to patients
Research students · Credited auditors · Auditors
Students who are scheduled to undergo teaching practice or hospital practice or nursing care practice
Over 40-years old
Students who had abnormal findings in the chest X-ray last year or Students who are directed to take annual check
Transfer students in their first year

※Please refer to Separate Sheet 3 for information on what to wear for the chest X-ray examination.

If you need a chest X-ray for scholarship application, etc., please ask at the reception desk.

All health checkups, including chest x-rays, must be taken on the same day.

Omission of Chest X-Ray

If any of the following apply to you, you must request this at the Interview with a medical professional.

- 1) Those who are required to have a chest X-ray but need to omit it due to the possibility of pregnancy or other reasons.
- 2) Those who have had a chest X-ray taken since January of this year. It may be possible to omit it.